

Speedwell Weather wins Environmental Finance Award for eighth consecutive year

January 13th, 2016, HARPENDEN, Herts, UK– Speedwell Weather, has won Environmental Finance’s award for best Advisory/Data Service for the eighth consecutive year.

Speedwell Weather’s CO-CEO, David Whitehead said: ‘Speedwell is once again incredibly proud to have been voted as the winner of this award.’

‘We have been exceptionally busy over the past twelve months with development of our core products and the launch of important new initiatives. We have continued to grow our SuperPack® data product which provides corporate-wide access to tens of thousands of weather data sets worldwide. We have increased our coverage of agriculture through our Commodity Product which now encompasses over 240 crop areas around the world. 2015 also saw the launch of the Speedwell Market, a platform to facilitate weather hedging for energy market participants by providing free historical data, Settlement Data and pricing tools for sixty key markets in the USA, Europe and Australia.’

We would like to thank our clients and partners for supporting us and look forward to building on our success in 2016’
